Welcome to the Transition Alliance!

We are a non-profit organization of youth-serving professionals dedicated to helping youth make positive transitions to adult life. The Transition Alliance was formed in 2001 as a professional organization to provide support/technical assistance to transition professionals and advocate for WorkAbility.

Join the Transition Alliance to:

- Access transition resources and information from a variety of sources
- Connect with other people with a passion for transition
- Be an advocate for youth in transition
- Link with staff development resources using technology
- Receive reduced registration costs for Transition Alliance sponsored events...
- And your member dues are tax deductible, too!
